

GIS SPECIALIST

Responsibilities

Reporting to the Manager of the Geospatial Department, this individual is required to work in achieving the business strategic initiatives through the use of GIS in Information Services. Specifically, this individual will focus on the GIS area and supporting applications; responsible to collaborate with other arms of the business to deliver a consultative approach to help clients to accomplish their goals and conduct GIS training as required.

Requirements and Qualifications:

- Degree in Geographic Information System (GIS) or related discipline (Geomatics, Computer Science, Land Surveying or equivalent in experience.
- Minimum of 1 year working with ESRI product suite and associated extensions.
- Extensive knowledge of GIS methodologies and tools, including ability to effectively use development lifecycle.
- Experience with field data capture methodologies and integrating GPS data in a GIS is an asset.
- Ability to assess business needs and develop pragmatic solutions.
- Knowledge of Geospatial software including but not limited to, FieldGenius, AutoDesk and others
- Experience with programming, app development, marketing skills are an asset
- Experience with delivering training and developing training aids is an asset
- Energetic, innovative and eager to tackle new projects and ideas
- Self-directed and able to work without constant supervision
- Strong interpersonal, written/verbal communication and customer service skills
- Self-reliant/self-motivated person who works well in a dynamic team environment.
- Proven ability to manage multiple, concurrent requests.

Deadline: March 27, 2019

Salary range: negotiable

Email Resumes and Cover Letter to:

Human Resources

GeoTechVision Enterprises Ltd

44 Cowper Drive

Kingston 20

Jamaica, (876) 634-6813

Email: hr@techvisionenterprise.com